ABOUT the student residence in Valencia

The Galileo Galilei student residence* in Valencia is a university residence mixed with Spanish students that allows you to get the most out of your program by truly integrating yourself into campus life.

Live in the center of university life! The residence, with more than 2,000 m² on campus, has an unbeatable location and impressive facilities. Next to the Universidad Politécnica de Valencia, only a short 10-minute walk to our Enforex Spanish School and 5 minutes from the beach. The 'Tarongers' tram stop is just on the doorstep to quickly reach, explore and discover all the corners of the beautiful city of Valencia.

It offers quiet and spacious accommodations with WiFi in all areas. Comfortable rooms, all outward facing and sunny, are decorated in a unique style inspired by the 'slow deco philosophy' to make you feel in a place of calm and harmony. All rooms have comfy beds, a seating area as well as a work area and large wardrobes. Also available several common areas on the ground floor including a games room, fitness center, cafeteria, and a shared kitchen for students' use where you can cook your own meals, although a catering service is offered as well.

*This is a student residence we work with to cover our high season, reservations are on request and subject to availability.
