SALAMANCA OUTSTANDING UNIVERSAL VALUE

Salamanca's sandstone buildings glow golden throughout the day, reminding us that underneath its lively college atmosphere is a remarkable history that dates back to the third century. As a relatively small city, Salamanca is conveniently walkable, full of impressive sites and alive at all hours of the night thanks to Spain's oldest university and its Spanish and international population. And great news for Spanish learners - most people consider the dialect spoken here to be the purest form of Castilian!

Located just two hours from the capital city of Madrid and just under three hours from Toledo (another UNESCO World Heritage Site) Salamanca is the perfect city to explore nearby landmarks and surrounding villages, mountains and lakes. Salamanca is the perfect destination for those who want to experience learning Spanish in an energetic, youthful environment in one of Spain's best-conserved cities where learning is deep-rooted in its history.
